Church Covenant Responsive Reading

Living as brothers and sisters of one spiritual body whose head is the Lord Jesus Christ, and gathering this day to celebrate the ordinance of holy communion, we do now renew our commitments before God.

We commit before God to love one another in a Christlike manner

We commit, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to walk together in Christian love, and to watch over one another in Christian love;

to remember one another in prayer; to aid one another in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and Christian courtesy in speech;

to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation and mindful of the rules Christ to secure reconciliation without delay.

We commit before God to maintain consistent involvement in Kingdom labor with our brothers and sisters

We commit to participate consistently in the regular worship and ministry of this Body, to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its doctrines, and discipline;

to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel through all nations;

to use our influence to combat the abuse of any substance or vice.

We commit before God to grow in personal obedience to Christ

We also commit to maintain family and personal devotions; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk carefully and honorably in the world;

to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and above reproach in the way we carry ourselves; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger;

and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.
